

Words and Deeds

Student and Academic Clients' Comments on the Proofreading Service

"I am a PhD student at the University of Manchester. I need your help with my work as you do have a great reputation among Iraqi student here they recommended me to contact you."

PhD candidate, University of Manchester, January 2018

"Thank you very much for your work. This is exactly what I hoped for. Your feedback really has improved my thesis. I don't think it will be necessary to go over the text one more time. My professor will do the final check-up after which everything should be good to go."

"Thank you again. I will definitely recommend your services to my colleagues."

PhD candidate, University of Reading, November 2017

"I'm very pleased with the work and thank you very much! I'll contact you if I have any question."

Teacher, Malaysia, October 2017

"Many thanks for your prompt response and for doing such an amazing job. Your comments really helped to improve the overall quality of my thesis."

PhD candidate, UCLAN, September 2017

"Thanks very much Debra, this was a really good and fast job."

Company Founder and CEO, Germany, September 2017

"Thank you so much for your time and effort. You have done an amazing work in proofreading my thesis, I really appreciate it. It is great how you explain and highlight some issues that I would never have noticed. Also, your timing is impeccable. Thank you for that."

Your comment about "architecture" and "architectural" is accurate. I am wondering how come no one from my supervisory team has brought attention to it! I am working on fixing that. Furthermore, I am working on your other comments and the referencing. Thank you for the referencing guidelines, and thank you for offering to have a look at the final draft. I can't thank you enough. I will keep it in mind, and I will definitely do if I have enough time."

The work you have done is very clear so far. I will send you if I have further enquiries or clarifications."

I am overall very delighted of your excellent service, and I even see this an opportunity for future work with you."

I will send you an email after I am done with amending the thesis changes. Many many thanks."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, September 2017

"I can't express how useful your comments and proofreading is. I feel more confident about my work. I am working of fixing all your comments."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, September 2017

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"I would like to thank you for your effort of proof-reading my thesis. Your comments and feedback have helped me a lot.

I've submitted my thesis today and I really appreciate your quick responses and communication. I would definitely recommend you to my friends.

I hope to contact you soon for other work of publications."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, August 2017

"Thanks for your great corrections and comments."

PhD candidate, LJMU, August 2017

"The CV and the personal letter looks good to me. Thank you very much for your help and excellent work. I will definitely recommend you to other people and if I will need help in the future I will contact you again. Thank you very much.

Thank you for your correction, it looks much better than before and I am very satisfied with the final results. Please find the final drafts attached to this email."

Student, University of Liverpool, July 2017

"Great! Many thanks for the comments and suggestions, really useful. Everything is clear so far."

PhD candidate, University of ??, July 2017

"I wanted to say you that I did my PhD viva on April and I passed with minor corrections and 17 July I will graduate as doctor in XXX. Furthermore I would like to share with you the fact that the thesis was so well written thanks to your proofreading that I have been asked your details by two persons of my old department of XXX of University of Liverpool. One was my colleague of PhD and the other one my supervisor. Of course I gave them your contacts saying them you were very professional and high quality in correcting my thesis doing your job. Thank you again."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, July 2017

"Just to let you know that I have passed my VIVA with minor corrections where the feedback is the thesis is well written so many thanks for your help 🙏."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, May 2017

"Firstly, thank you for review my PhD document earlier this year. I was awarded my PhD submit to minor corrections, which I will be working on this month."

PhD candidate, University of Manchester, May 2017

"I would like to say thank you very much for your help. I am very impressed with your professional working styles and I will definitely get in touch with you again for my future English written pieces of work."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, May 2017

"Thanks a million for such a wonderful job that have you done."

PhD candidate, LJMU, April 2017

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"I would like to express my sincere thanks for your efforts and fruitful notes to improve my paper. I am pleased to inform you that the first research which has been reviewed by you has been published in Taylor and Francis Publishing and can be accessed through the link below."

Assistant Professor, Karbala University, April 2017

"Thank you for your comments and corrections, as usual they are very helpful. I will be working through them over the next week or so."

PhD candidate, University of Manchester, March 2017

"Thank you very much for your quick and meticulous work. I will get back to you with the final draft when it is done. Many thanks."

PhD candidate, University of Bradford, March 2017

"Thank you very much. My problem, I am unable to describe the great work that you have done. However, I will look into the dictionary to find appropriate words to say that. I want to say thank you again for the great work you have done."

"Thank you very much for the time that you spent to improve my thesis. It is appreciated work. Definitely, I will recommend your work to all international students who I know."

PhD candidate, University of Manchester, February 2017

"Thanks Debra for your email. Really I appreciate your work and thank you very much for your corrections. For your interest, I gave your email for all my colleagues who are nearly finish their study and need proofreading."

PhD candidate, University of Manchester, January 2017

"I am sending you this mail to say you again thank you for the precious work and effort you did to proof read my PhD Thesis."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, January 2017

"I saw many comments on each chapter and I would be very thankful for your hard working. I think some comments do not need to edit as they are used in civil engineering by this way. Others are really important."

"I will work on each comment and try to give it to you for final check (if I have time)."

"Thanks again for your hard working."

PhD candidate, University of Manchester, January 2017

"Thanks so much for your swift response so far. I am highly delighted with the outcome I have received so far."

PhD candidate, LJMU, December 2016

"Thank you so much for your help. I got the file and went through. Currently, I am doing final amendments. You saved me some more extra time, to look at it in more detail before the submission. I really appreciate your punctuality and dedication."

PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, November 2016

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"After a quick glance, I would like to say I am impressed with your service and would return to do more business with you in the nearest future. May I particularly thank you for proofreading the literature section [reference list] despite not paying you for that (please let me know if you would like to get paid). I will contact you if I require any clarification of the proofread documents."
PhD candidate, University of Leicester, November 2016

"I have no better words to appreciate your help. Thank you so much for your commitment and honesty. Thank you too for helping me within a short notice."
PhD candidate, Masinde Muliro University of Science and Technology, Kenya, October 2016

"...everything went well with my submission last month and supervisor was very happy with the work. Thank you once again for all your help."
PhD candidate, Cardiff University, October 2016

"As usual, please feel free to raise any parts that don't make sense, your comments help a lot."
PhD candidate, University of Liverpool, October 2016

"Thank you so much for this. I am so relieved to have someone else look over it. I am so grateful for your help and glad it seemed OK. Phew!"
PhD candidate, Birkbeck, University of London, September 2016

"Many thanks for your kind support and patient proofread. It is super helpful if you can provide some comments on the whole thesis."

"Your patience, technique and approach are very impressive."

"I am writing to express my faithful appreciation for your help, which guided me through these intensive days."

PhD candidate, University of Cambridge, September 2016

"Thank you very much Debra. I truly appreciate your help."
PhD candidate, Thailand, September 2016

"Thank you for your corrections and advice. I think it has significantly improved the quality of the work. Thank you also for going through the bits that weren't in the brief."
PhD candidate, Cardiff University, September 2016

"I just wanted to say a very big thank you for all your help, support and kindness. Your comments are very helpful for revising and improving my thesis. I hope that my thesis was not one of the worst theses you ever proofread."

"I will recommend you to my friends if that is okay for you."

PhD candidate, University of Leicester, August 2016

"You are really efficient! I shall have a careful check and improve the formatting."

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Thank you so much!! You are a very professional proofreader! I have completed the final editing and saved it as a PDF:). Without your help and suggestions, this may become very difficult. Thanks again."

PhD candidate, University of Cambridge, August 2016

"Thank you so much for this great service. I do really appreciate your kind support."
Associate Professor, Leeds University Business School, August 2016

"I would like you to know that your previous work was really great and it has been accepted for the publication. I'm here again to ask for a help in proof reading my other works. Please let me know if you are available for this job. Thank you."

PhD candidate, University of Malaysia, July 2016

"Before this, I have used your services to proofreading my master thesis. I am very satisfied with the service given. I am pleased that you can proofread my current review paper as attached below."

PhD candidate, University of Malaysia, July 2016

"Thank you for the great works on proof reading. The final revision just need several amendments and I think it will be fine. It was nice working with you and all the best for the future."

"I have check and made some amendments according to the suggestions. I also wrote a response to your comments with a bold font just after your comment in the cloud. I'm so glad that you have done a great job to proofread my manuscript in a couple of days and I appreciate your effort. Kindly recheck the manuscript with respect to the amendments and respond to the comments."

PhD candidate, University of Technology, Malaysia, June 2016

"Thanks a lot for your help. I am really grateful. I will go through the thesis and get back to you when you return from holiday."

PhD candidate, Middlesex University Business School, June 2016

"Thank you very much for your valuable and important notes."

PhD student, LJMU, June 2016

"I have made the corrections as you have identified mistakes on the draft of my thesis. I am very well pleased with your help with the proofreading. I have hereby attached the final draft for you to help me check the overall formatting before I send it to my director of studies."

Thanks most sincerely,"

PhD student, LJMU, May 2016

"Thank you very much, I do appreciate all you have done for me."

Student, April 2016

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Thank you for your feedback. It would help a lot. I appreciate it."

Postgraduate student, March 2016

"Many thanks for the excellent work. I would be grateful if you could have a final look at the revised paper."

PhD student, LJMU, March 2016

"Thank you for your usual useful feedback."

MSc student, University of Glasgow, March 2016

"Thank you very much for the work you have done. I will let you know when I will send you the final draft this week."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, February 2016

"Thanks a lot! I really appreciate your effort and help! It's much clear and handy!"

Postgraduate student, February 2016

"Thank you, the comments and corrections have been very useful. I am grateful of your help."

PhD student, February 2016

"I received it and I am so thankful for all the amendments you made. Well spotted as usual."

PhD graduate, February 2016

"Thanks a lot Debra. I honestly very much like the quality and what you did on my chapter and that is very much appreciated. I am working now to fix the comments that you asked me to do before sending this chapter to my supervisor to look at it."

PhD student, Liverpool, February 2016

"Thank you for this. I hope you have had a lovely holiday. When the final draft is completed (after a discussion with my supervisor), I'll send it to you. I read through your comments and I found it very helpful. Thank you again."

PhD student, January 2016

"I just want to say that your proofreading was excellent for me and I feel you are the best who proofread my work as your work was perfect for me... I really need your help regarding this proofreading."

Postgraduate student, France, January 2016

"I think now I get how to use Track Changes."

Thank you very much. I am totally satisfied with your proofreading and I would like to ask you to proofread my future essays as well.

Hope you have a great day :)"

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Thank you very much for your amazing proofreading. It is really helpful!"

Postgraduate student, January 2016

"I love both of them [the proofread documents]. Thank you very much for your work. I got a few Thai friends who are about to finish their PhD this year. I surely will recommend you to them."

PhD student, University of Birmingham, January 2016

"Thank you for your help and cooperation. I will go through your comments and then I will send it to my supervisor to get his feedback then I will come back to you before I submit it if need it.

Again thank you very much and I will come back to you as soon as I hear from my supervisor. (Might takes a few days.)

Also, If you don't mind I will recommend you to some of my friends as they are looking for a proofreader!!"

PhD student, January 2016

"Thank your time to proofread my abstract. I am totally satisfied with your service. A millions thanks to you."

PhD student, University of Nottingham, January 2016

"I really appreciate your effort. I will look through your proofreading and your suggestions. When I complete my thesis maybe a couple of weeks, I will sent to you again before my submission deadline, as you said."

"I'm really appreciate your effort."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, January 2016

"Hope you are doing well. I would like to appreciate all your help with proof-reading of my thesis. I am really happy and satisfied with your work and I will definitely recommend you to my friends who are looking for a professional proof-reading."

PhD student, University of Salford, January 2016

"Many thanks for you work, I have received it now and I have finished all the changes in the dissertation except for one... Sorry to ask you this question, but I really appreciate the work you had helped me in the past 2 weeks, and I can say you are the best proofreading lecturer I have ever met, I will introduce more customers to you.

Once again, Merry Christmas, and happy new year!"

Postgraduate student, LJMU, December 2015

"I will definitely recommend you to my friends and am sure they will be delighted to know about you. Thanks again for all your hard work and cooperation."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, November 2015

"Thank you very much for helping me which is highly appreciated."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, November 2015

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Super excellent Debra."

PhD student/lecturer, University of Leicester, November 2015

"Greeting. Thank you for your hard work. In this email I am attaching the word file. You will find that I add some notes and did some changes. Could you answer my note and I will be grateful for you?"

PhD student, LJMU, November 2015

"Greeting. Thank you for your hard work. In this email I am attaching the word file and did some of the corrections. You will find that I add some notes. Could you answer my note and I will be grateful for you. Take your time. I don't want you to rush on it. I want an excellent work like I am used to receive from you."

PhD student, LJMU, September 2015

"Thanks for your fast response and very professional editing work... Once again, thanks so much for your kind helps and very professional editing work."

Professor, Tianjin University, China

"Thank you for your proofread service, I am really impressed. Kindly find attached the two files that have amended and the replies for your comment. Kindly advice for some parts which are better in your opinion."

"Thank you very much for your help, now I have more confidence to submit my works. I can't imagine how would I do without your help within this limited time :)."

I'm also happy and glad that my works are interesting for you although contain a lot of errors (for that I really apologise).

I will definitely use your service again if needed in the future and refer your name when someone looking for a proofreader.

Thank you very much."

MSc student, University of Liverpool, September 2015

"Thank you so much for your comment. Your job was superb. I am sorry as I can't send it anymore as it had reach my dateline. I really appreciate what you had done for me. For your information, I did promote your service to my friends."

MA student, University of Sheffield, September 2015

"That rate is perfectly fine. You offer a great service and I do not mind the wait."

PhD student, September 2015

"I heard so much about you from Num. she strongly recommends you to me as you are very good and attentive to details. :)"

Thank you so much for answering :) your answer comforts me.

I will refer you to another of my friend. He is studying master this year.

Thank you very much for your help."

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

MSc student, University of Birmingham, September 2015

"Just little note dear Debra we will send our final proofread of dissertation and report just before the deadlines (because as you know need to be seen by the supervisors, and possibly they make some amendments).

So please don't hesitate to record any new words or new proofreading appeared in the final draft when I sent them and please make the charges on them because I really appreciate your hard work and I want you to be happy because I am very grateful to work with you."

MSc student, August 2015

"I really appreciate your help, and checking the addition texts.

your feedback was really helpful, and glad that I send you my dissertation for the checking.

I will be happy to pass your email to my friends whom in need for proofreading in the future if you don't mind.

Thank you again"

MSc student, University of Liverpool, August 2015

"Thank you for your very fantastic response. I really appreciate it. Thank you for your suggestion and I really happy worked with you. I also have pass your email address to my friends in Malaysia and UK for proofread in future.

Once again, thank you so much."

Technical University of Malaysia, August 2015

"I've gone through the document and found your comments are very useful. I will revise it based on your comments later."

PhD student, Australian University, July 2015

"Not forget to thank you for the great job. Your comments are indeed appreciated. Again thanks for your great job and all your comments. You are not just proofreading the comments you provided were indeed invaluable. Again thank you so so much."

PhD student, LJMU, July 2015

"Many thanks for excellent amendments. It is very kind of you to highlight a few 'typos' in references."

PhD student, LJMU, July 2015

"Many thanks. You are so nice Debra."

PhD researcher, University of Leicester, July 2015

"I submitted the final version to my supervisor after took with all your comments. And I still wait his feedback. I would like to thank you for what you did in my report and for your interest."

MPhil to PhD student, LJMU, July 2015

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Thank you very much for your help during this period for proofreading of my essay. I appreciate your help and support."

PhD student, LJMU, July 2015

"Many thanks for your help and for your efforts to make the sentences understandable by linking and adding more formal words. I really appreciate that."

MSc student, University of Liverpool, June 2015

"Thank you so much for your work. I have made all your suggestions and answered your comments."

MSc student, LJMU, June 2015

"Thanks a lot for quick return! And thanks for your comments. I took a look at the draft, your comments there look very helpful too."

Many thanks for the proofreading by the way, it really helped."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, June 2015

"Thank you very much. I think I will use your service every time I have to re-write and re-edit my chapters."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, June 2015

"Regarding the annotations you did so far, I like the suggestions and queries you put in the comment boxes. I will amend based on that."

PhD student, LJMU, May 2015

"Thanks for your revision and your advice in order to improve my work, I appreciate that."

MSc student, University of Liverpool, May 2015

"Thank you for your hard work and the notes that you give it to me. In this email I am sending to you the draft after accepting most of the corrections that you told me. Moreover under some of your notes I write with red colour for explaining the idea of your note."

For the (MPTNs) thank you for helping me for opening my eyes to it because it is supposed to be (MPTN)."

I just want to say thank you for your hard work. Moreover in respect to your proofreading services, I am planning to start working with you after I transfer."

PhD student, LJMU, April 2015

"I just simply want to say a big thank you for all your efforts and nice knowing you. I have downloaded the files and hopefully it should not be any problem. I'll let you know how it goes and will keep in touch in future."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, March 2015

"I have looked at your comments. It is brilliant."

PhD student, LJMU, March 2015

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Many thanks for your email and your great work."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, February 2015

"Thank you very much for your help for the proofreading of my chapters."

PhD student, LJMU, February 2015

"Biggest thanks for your brilliantly effective proofread service."

PhD student, LJMU, January 2015

"Once again, thank you very much for your concern on my thesis. I am really appreciate it."

PhD student, University of Malaya, August 2014

"Many thanks for your comments and wishes. I did the corrections, converted to pdf and printed it out to check the hard copy. Really your help is highly appreciated."

"I am very pleased to inform you that I did my viva successfully and they said that my writing was not bad. Definitely the favour is for you because I know that my English language is rubbish.

By the way so many of my colleagues will contact you when they want to proofread their thesis as I gave them your email is that OK."

Many thanks again"

PhD student, LJMU, May/June 2014

"Thanks a lot. I sincerely appreciate your effort and cooperation and the time you spent reviewing the first three chapters of my thesis."

PhD student, UCL, April 2014

"Many thanks. This is so helpful. You see, I can record and describe everything through shorthand but sometimes I don't know what various meaning people attach to words in this country as English is not my first language. I also tend to translate things directly from other languages but I am glad my instructor says I have improved on this only after you started looking at the notes."

"I will look at it and come back to you tomorrow. I am forever so grateful... Thank you! Thank you!"

"Many thanks. I cannot explain or express how much your help has made my work so easy."

Social Work student, Oxford, March and April 2014

"Thank you very much for your help. The correction you made below is exactly what I meant to say. I looked at the second correction, the one below hold the right description for the weakness of dft method. Thank you very much again for your help."

Doctoral student and lecturer, March 2014

"Thank you very much. I am highly impressed with your work. I was expecting this next week. Have a great weekend"

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

PhD student, University of Leicester, March 2014

"Many thanks for your always great help"

PhD student, LJMU, March 2014

"Thanks so much for the chapter 2 reviewing, it was excellent."

PhD student, LJMU, March 2014

"Thank you very much for your support. You were a great help to me. I wish you all the best"

Master's student, February 2014

"Hi, Debra, I have read your comment and answer your comment after I type @. There are a few words that I change since it confused you, and a few term I decided not to change because of technical meaning. I am very pleased with the work you have done. You also point me word that can confused people. Thank you. Please take a look at attach no -3. This was after I read your comment and change some of it. Also attach your comment with my answer. Many thanks"

PhD student, February 2014

"Thank you very much for helping me. It is great, you completed it on a perfect time"

PhD student, LJMU, January 2014

"Thanks so much that is brilliant and much appreciated."

PhD student, LJMU, December 2013

"Thank you for your proofreading. I really appreciate your work and wonder if you would be willing to provide proofreading service on a long-term basis. I would like to sharpen my academic writing skill and receive comments on how to improve systematically (I mean like a follow-up mentor). I will appreciate further discussion.

Thank you for your effort! ...I really appreciated your work because I know this essay was written in haste and it contained many careless mistakes. I was glad that you had proofread the essay in such an efficiency and high quality [sic]. All my essays in this semester were finished but I will continue to ask for your help next semester to improve systematically."

Undergraduate student, University of Manchester, December 2013

"Many thanks for your valuable comments and the significant effort to send the work before the weekend"

PhD student, University of Liverpool, December 2013

"Thank you for your fantastic work. I have made the changes that you recommended."

MBA student, LJMU, December 2013

"Dear Debra, Just letting you know that I have passed successfully my VIVA and now being a doctor ;- ) thank you very much for your detailed work and support!!!"

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

PhD graduate, LJMU, September 2013

"Thank you so much for your kind assistance and encouraging support. I'm working on a new project now, and the data I've already gathered might be adequate for my next paper, hoping to finish it in few weeks time. Would you please accept proofreading it when it's done?"

Head of Department, University of Karbala, September 2013

"The paper you proofread for the Journal of Service Management has being accepted and on-line published.

Hi Debra - thanks again for your spot on and high quality service. All comments and advice have been taken together with corrections. Cheers."

Senior Lecturer, LJMU, July-August 2013

"Debra, thank you so much!!!

You are helpful and awesome that you do that on last minute as always for me.

Thank you many times, you are a life saver!!"

Masters student, King's College London, September 2013

"Thank you so much for returning this back quickly. I noticed there are mistakes which I normally ignore in my writing, thank you for highlighting this. Thank you so much once again."

PhD student and lecturer, University of Malaya, September 2013

"That was quick! Thank you so much for your work."

Masters student, University College London, September 2013

"Thank you for your efforts, it's really a great job in a short time, thank you again."

PhD student, LJMU, August 2013

"Thanks for your prompt reply. I am also happy that you reduce the fee this time. You are so kind. I want to say I am very lucky that you always accompany me on my study trip."

Masters student, University College London, August 2013

"Thank you very much for your work, that's really efficient."

Masters student, University College London August 2013

"Thank you so much for your help and generousness! This application is for a postdoctoral fellowship in [overseas university]. But this is the first time I try to find a full-time job, so I don't know whether it will be a good result. Thank you for your wish. As I will keep on publishing papers after I finish my PhD, and I am quite happy with the way we worked, I wonder whether you mind to do proofreading for all my academic work whenever I need?"

PhD student, University of Leeds, August 2013

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Thanx so much. You are so kind and helpful.

Thank you very much. For all the help and support and the fast response. We are very grateful."

PhD student, University of Leicester, August 2013

"I have scanned through it and it looks like you have done marvellous work, many thanks indeed. I will probably need to consult you back to clarify some of the comments in the thesis and in the other word document. I will start to work on it tomorrow."

PhD student, LJMU, July 2013

"Many thanks for your last mail. I was helpful for me to understand the difference. I have also asked to my supervisors as well, so I will change it after receiving their feedbacks. I attach a file and I made several amendments to my thesis. But I still have left finishing up writing acknowledge and suggestions for future studies. You do not read a whole thesis again, but I need your helps again in some parts which are marked in a red colour."

PhD student, University of Leeds, July 2013

"First I'd like to thank you for your efforts, I improved my work according to your notices, it's look more professional now. Many thanks for your mail. I will be delighted if you can re-read my thesis again. All your comments were very helpful to me."

PhD student, LJMU, July 2013

"Many thanks for your valuable comments."

Masters student, University of Liverpool, July 2013

"Thank you very much for this!! That helps me really and bring me forward ;-)

I have now finalized the paper as best as I could per as today....thank you again for all your advices and hints!!!

I will send out the document to supervisors tonight - I do hope that everything will go well and I do not need to come back to you again ;-) Anyhow, it was a very good service you delivered and I am happy with it!

All the best to you!"

"I have had my mock viva last week and the Profs want me to have some changes in the research paper. As I have appreciated very much the way of proofreading you did, I am coming back to you now ;-) Now, as I am currently working on it, I wanted to ask you, if you would re-proofread my research work?"

PhD student, LJMU, July 2013

"I would like to say thank you so much again for returning my thesis so quick despite what you have gone through over last weekend. It is nice to hear that you are now feeling better. I have started working on the thesis and hoping to submit it by next week. I will let you know when I submit it. Thanks!!!"

PhD student, University of Leeds, June 2013

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"You revive my nearly dead motivation to look at my thesis again every time I receive your comment, so please take a final look for me.

Thank you very much again.

"Thank you so much, I will rewrite the document for I agree with your concern and will send to you for further amendment ASAP. Please charge me; and certainly you are a great treasure for me and my friend.

"Your professional service is urgently needed again! I am writing a project proposal to the [government] for submission funding in order to develop [database details]. I am sending you a link on their guidelines. I hope you could comment on the logic and flow of our proposal, and your output has always made my writings looks more intelligent and easy to read."

MPhil student, LJMU, June 2013

"I have realized how many corrections you have suggested and thank you very much for your support!! I do really appreciate your work and comments! I am looking forward to hearing from you and getting back the document.

Thank you very much for this!! That helps me really and bring me forward ;-)"

DBA student, LJMU Management School, June 2013

"I have submitted my dissertation by today. Just want to drop by and say thank you. Really appreciate your assistance."

MBA student, LJMU, May 2013

"I have submitted my dissertation. I would like to express my greatest appreciation to your assistance. I would say you are a very professional proof-reader. Your swift replies have permitted me to finish my dissertation by deadline. You have very details eyes and a great patience in reading every single word. Your advices are useful and practical. I think you are a very reliable person and I would love to recommend you to my juniors."

Masters student, LJMU, May 2013

"Thank you very much for your efficient work! I will read through the draft and transfer the money to you. Thank you again for your help during the busy week :-)"

PhD student, University of Leeds, April 2013

"Thanks for your time and comments. I have attached the file after I have done the changes - if you could look at it again and tell me if it is good. I am doing PhD and I think it should be as a whole not more than 100.000 words.

If you please check your account I have transferred the money to you. I am really comfortable with your work and your time commitment; consider [the additional money] as a small gift from me because of the short notice and I hope you can check my work every time until I submit my final thesis 😊 Thanks again."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, April 2013

"Thank you so much! You really did a great and fast work!"

Masters student, University of Liverpool, April 2013

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"I already finished the final version and I really appreciate what you have done, your advices is very useful and correctly. And I will recommend you to my friends :-)"

MSc Management student, University of Hertfordshire Management School, April 2013

"Many thanks for your efforts and valuable comments. I revised the first part and modified.

I wrote some clarifications in your comments. Could you please look at it especially the highlighted? I will follow your comments in the second part and send later today. Really I learned a lot from your comments."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, April 2013

"Thank you again for all your work and detailed explanation. I really appreciate the effort you made on the work. And personally, I like your work.

"Thank you so much for the efficient work. I have checked the proofreading, it is as good as usual."

PhD student, University of Leeds, March 2013

"Many thanks for your good work. I had an impressive performance at the presentation today. My supervisors were so happy with me and I am also happy with myself. This all revolve round the good input from your proof reading. Thanks once again for your work."

"I am grateful for the help you rendered. I will also recommend some of my friends to patronise your services."

"Have just checked your work and very pleased with what you did. I am grateful and may God bless you."

"I have just finished the corrections you made on the final draft. I would like to thank you for the effort you put in ensuring that my thesis is well proofread. I will update you on the outcome of my voice presentation as soon as it is done."

PhD student, LJMU, January – March 2013

"I am truly grateful for your help. Many thanks."

Senior Lecturer, draft book for publication, University of Liverpool, December 2012

"I officially graduated with Distinction. I got 78% from my dissertation. Thank you so much because of your help. Moreover, I am also the top student on MSc International Marketing course. Hence, I won the prize: business school prize for best overall performance."

MSc student, University of Birmingham, December 2012

"Thank you so much for your fantastic proof reading of Chapter 3. All sounds brilliant!"

PhD student, LJMU, December 2012

"I am happy with your suggestions on the track [changes]. I'm so glad [friend] recommended you!"

MPhil/PhD student, University College London, October 2012

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"I really appreciate your comments and suggestions. They were very helpful. In the future, in case I need further proofreading in my work, you will be the first person I will be after."

Final year undergraduate student, University of Liverpool, October 2012

"Thank you for all your efforts to make my dissertation good."

MBA Finance student, University of Liverpool, September 2012

"I have revised the dissertation followed your revision, very thanks for your careful work."

MSc student, University of Liverpool, September 2012

"Thank you for the great effort to proofread my work early!"

International Summer School student, LJMU, August 2012

"Thank you very much for your top quality editing services. That was a pleasure knowing you. I'll be in touch in near future for the same service."

Graduate Teaching Assistant and PhD student, University of Leicester, August 2012

"I am so happy with the proofreading you did.

I do not have the relevant words to thank you, but your help is highly appreciated, I am really very much grateful, and it is honor to work with you."

PhD student, LJMU, August 2012

"Dear Debra, that was really fast!! I'm really happy with all the help you have provided me."

MSc student, LSTM, July 2012

"Sure you are brilliant I'll let my friends know."

PhD student, University of Cambridge, July 2012

"I think the comments and suggestions are quite useful. I will polish the draft based on your comments and let you know if I still have some questions.

I am happy with your work :) and I am sure that I will recommend you to my friends.

Thank you so much!"

PhD student, LJMU, June 2012

"It was great meeting you. You are so lovely. Thank you very much Debra for the proof reading. I read your comments and followed them, brilliant."

PhD student, LJMU, June 2012

"Thank you soooo much!!! No really - thank you!!"

International student, LJMU, May 2012

"I have received the documents. I had a quick look through, it looks great. Thank you very much."

"Many thanks for your work. It looks good to me."

PhD student, LJMU, May 2012

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"I just read through my assignment you have edited and thank you so much for your comments. Thank you as well for offering your free service if I need you to look my assignment again."

Nursing student, Thailand, April 2012

"You have actually helped me a lot, more than my supervisor actually – so thank you for this. I really appreciate your time and comments."

PhD student, University of Southampton, March 2012

"I really appreciate your comments on the chapter ... I'm relieved knowing you will be able to proofread for me tonight."

"I will need you again after the VIVA ... I hope you will have time for me. Thank you very much for your help."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, January 2012

"I am really happy about your service, and I will recommend you to anybody who needs it."

Staff nurse, Cheshire, January 2012

"Thank you very much for your quick response. A quick view of the document indicates that you have done a great job. I am also thankful to your professional attitude by offering me another opportunity to consult you if there is anything in the document. Indeed, I should write a letter of recommendation and will do after completion of my studies."

PhD student, University of Liverpool, December 2011

"I've amended every part that you recommended and thank you very much once again for your neat work. It's like I'm actually learning English through your work."

"After reading through all my proposal I really love your work ..."

PhD student, Thailand, December 2011

"Thanks for your help and hardworking, I do appreciate it."

Undergraduate student, University of Wolverhampton, November 2011

"Thank you very much for supporting me to edit my thesis. I am happy with your comments and suggestions and will work to correct errors before I submit the thesis."

"Once again thank you for the putting extra time and energy to complete and return my work to meet earlier datelines."

International PhD student, University of Leeds, October 2011

"I have read all your comments and I am really appreciate your efforts to provide me the best services which I have not faced with anybody before."

PhD student, LJMU, October 2011

"Thank you very much for your guidance and support."

Postgraduate student, University of Liverpool, October 2011

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"Debra, just wanted to say thank you for the comments. They have really helped and are appreciated ... I got a 2:1. Thanks for all your help, couldn't have done it without it."

Final year undergraduate student, LJMU, September 2011

"Thanks for your hard job. I like the comments you made. I will work on it and send it to my supervisor."

Undergraduate student, University of Wolverhampton, September 2011

"Thank you for doing this for me. I am very satisfied your service. Many thanks."

Postgraduate student, University of Liverpool, September 2011

"Dear Debra, I am really impressed with your service, since you work with the high standard as you mentioned. I will try to follow your useful suggestions and submit it tomorrow. And I will use WOM to spread your good service to my friends. Thank you for your kindness."

Postgraduate student, LJMU, September 2011

"A friend of mine has highly-recommended your proofreading quality and introduced me your website."

"I am sending this e-mail for properly saying thank you to you ... Thank you very much for doing me the proofreading. You have given me a lot confidence. Your comments are helpful and I am happy that you find my work interesting ... I hope finally I can have a complete PhD thesis for you to read."

PhD student, University of Manchester, August 2011

"Thank you! I wasn't expecting it to be done so quickly! I'm going to read through the proofread version to check my arguments again ... Thank you for offering to read it again, this really make me feel more confident with my work."

"Thank you for all the useful comments! I think I'll be able finish the work faster than I planned."

"Thank you for all the time and effort! Thank you so much for helping. Please tell me if I can recommend you anywhere on the internet."

Postgraduate student, University of Manchester, August 2011

"Thank you very much for answering so quickly ... we've been looking for proofreaders for days and all charge at a very expensive rate. We believe that your rate is completely reasonable and affordable that is why we would definitely like to send our dissertations to you once we've finished."

"Thank you for everything you've done for me, I really appreciate all of your help. I have now finished accepting your final corrections and everything else that was incomplete, so hopefully I will be able to submit it first thing tomorrow. If I ever need another work to be proof-read (which will probably be the case eventually!) I will be sure to let you know."

"Thank you so much for proofreading my work. The changes you made are great, and I have already accepted most of them since they were mostly grammatical."

Postgraduate students, University of Liverpool, August 2011

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk

Words and Deeds

"I really appreciate your edits the first time around and hope the second one would help me present my final product."

Postgraduate student, University of Manchester, August 2011

"Thanks for the proofread it was well implemented."

Postgraduate student, University of Leeds, April 2011

"Thank you for helping me, Debra."

Undergraduate student, University of Liverpool, March 2011

"Thank you so much for your concern. I passed the essay ... thank you for your help! Otherwise, I would not be able to pass."

Postgraduate student, University of Liverpool, March 2011

D Williams, T/A Words and Deeds

Tel: 07783 997129

Email: debra@wordsanddeeds.co.uk Website: www.wordsanddeeds.co.uk